

Rate of change against time, plotted at the midpoint of each interval and shaded by the 50, 80 and 95 predictive regions. A scatter that widens or narrows over time while the regions do not points at the diffusion rather than the drift.